Very truly yours,

If, at some later date, report comes to hand as to burial records, both my wife and I will be deeply grateful receiving any information which may be forthcoming through your office.

My wife and I wish to thank you for your letter of June 30th, notifying us that a corrected report has been received that our son was killed in action November 19th, 1944, which, of course, supersedes previous reports we received from you that he had died in a German dressing station November 22nd.

Dear Major Coombs:-

Thank you for your letter of May 3rd. Mrs. Corbett and I both went to Margraten last summer, where we stayed with the Burgomaster, J.F. E. H. Ronckers, and his wife.

Since then I have contacted as many people as possible who have relatives interred in the Military Cemetery at Margraten, in order to attempt to give them a comforting picture of the Cemetery and the people of the district.

We, ourselves, are very glad that our son can remain buried in Margraten and that it will become a permanent American Military Cemetery.

Very truly yours,

I wish to inform you that the flag used during the final burial services for the remains of your son was removed from the casket and taken to Liege, Belgium, the same headquarters for the United States Military Cemetery in that vicinity, for mailing to you. However, the remains of your son were permanently interred in the American Military Cemetery near Arras, Holland.

Your letter pertaining to the remains of your son, the late Private Elliott R. Corbett II, has come to my attention.

Very truly yours,

Inasmuch as Margraten is, as you know, in Holland, maybe it would be a good idea to have your various subordinates correct this.

At the same time I am in receipt of a flag under which my son was supposed to have been buried, sent from Margraten, Liege, Belgium.

February 21st, in respect to the burial of my son at the Military Cemetery in Margraten.
