More information

1st Lt Edward F. Shields graduated from Pleasantville High School in 1940. He was employed with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

He volunteered for the Army of the United States in New York City, New York on 11 March 1942.

The B-17 went into a spin after being attacked by German fighters and exploded almost immediately thereafter. Two crew members could bail out and were taken prisoner. Seven men were killed. They were initially buried at the cemetery of Süpplingen.

Lt Shields is commemorated on a monument in the 30th Street Station in Philadelphia. The Monument commemorates the Pennsylvania Railroad employees who died in World War II.
