More information

1st Lt Norman J. Bettin attended Washington High School in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and was a graduate of Montello High School.

He was a farmer before he enlisted in Milwaukee, Wisconsin on 19 May 1942. He was commissioned at Williams Field, Arizona, on 25 July 1943.

He volunteered for a photo reconnaissance mission in a P-51. Normally he flew a P-38J.

The mission took place on 23 September 1944. The airplane was hit by flak over the airfield and crashed in the woods south of the Kröller Müller Museum where local workers found the wreckage and his remains on 7 October 1944.

The official date of death is not correct. It is the day his remains were found. Probably that is the reason for the mistake.
