More information

T/Sgt James F. Johnson enlisted in August 1942. He sent overseas in September 1943.

No specific eyewitness accounts were given on the loss of this aircraft and crew. The accompanying German reports in the MACR record give what facts are available. These enemy recaps contained in report #KU621 note that this plane was crashed at 1255 hours 15 miles north of Eusum, and was identified as a B-24 with a capital letter D underneath a number 252083 in yellow writing and below a yellow H-Bar in capital letters within a yellow line horizontally, that the ship was 100% destroyed, probably by a fighter and 10 crewmen were found dead with 5 of these identified as unknowns.
