More information

S/Sgt Earl E. Goewert graduated from Beaumont High School in 1937.

He enlisted in January 1942 and had been overseas since November 1943.

The plane only had one working engine, having been riddled by flak over Valenciennes. It was also attacked by a German fighter, flown by Lt Friedrich Lang of JG26. The pilot (2nd Lt James F. Holdren) sent the plane into a spiral in order to land near the Genech woods. The plane hit the ground, bounced, disintegrated and caught fire. The fighter circled the wreck, spat out a few barrages then landed in the neighboring Lesquin airfield. Less than an hour later the German pilot accompanied by firefighters arrived to extinguish the fire without success.

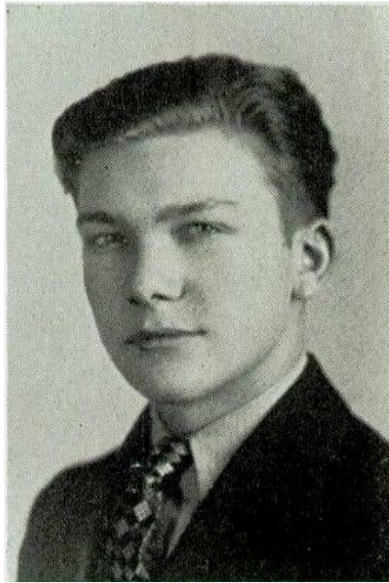

Eight crew members were killed. They were initially buried at the cemetery of Genech the same day. Two men were taken prisoner.

According to surviving crew members Sgt Goewert was decapitated during the first fighter attack.

A monument at the crash site remembers the fallen crew members.

The picture was taken in high school in 1937.
