More information

S/Sgt Paul D. Podolski was an outstanding athlete at Dedham High. He was employed at the Readville carshops before he entered the service on 25 June 1942, and graduated from Wendover Aerial Gunnery School at Wendover Field, Utah in October 1943 and was serving as Bombardier and Gunner.

Lt Bassett, the only survivor, gave a brief account on a casualty interrogation (U.S.) form dated 27 July 1945. He stated that the plane had been attacked by enemy fighters and the nose section had been set afire; that he bailed out but saw no more parachutes coming down, although he was in a position to see them had others gotten out. That was the extent of his report (in this MACR file record).

Podolski was buried at the village of Gueltz, (800) meters from the Gueltz Estate Germany.
