More information

F/O Robert L. Dean enlisted in Detroit, Michigan on 11 december 1942.

He was married to Mary Margaret Cayia on 18 December 1943.

The airplane was shot down by fighters.

F/O Dean was first buried on the edge of a forest, south of Wiehe.

Statement made on Nov 23 1944:

"At approximately (50°55'N - 11°55'E), 12 minutes before the briefed I.P. was reached, enemy aircraft made sudden attacks on the Group of which this aircraft was a member. The Squadron in which this aircraft was flying bore the brunt of the attacks. About 50 to 60 S/E and T/E aircraft comprised the attacking force.

They where mostly FW-190's although a few ME-109's and ME-210's were observed. The attacks lasted for about 10 minutes and there were friendly fighters present, but not in sufficient numbers to give adequate protection. This aircraft was last seen going down in the vicinity of the I.P. Due to the extreme battle conditions prevailing, no further observations were made and no further information regarding this crew is known".
