More information

---

Sgt Etzel arrived in England on 21 October 1944.

He flew a total missions of sixteen missions. On 11 December 1944, during his 14th mission, their plane was hit by flak and lost three engines. The aircraft was ditched in Allied occupied territory near Metz, France. The crew safely parachuted out of the plane prior to it's crash landing.

On 1 Janaury 1945, the aircraft was attacked by enemy fighters and was on fire between #2 engine and the fuselage. It was seen to blow up. The entire crew of nine men was killed. They were initially buried at the cemetery of prisoners of war in Stendal on 3 January 1945.
